Partnership Announcement:
Duncan Embury Heads Neinstein & Associates LLP
 Medical Malpractice Group

Neinstein & Associates LLP is excited to announce that Duncan Embury has joined the partnership and will be heading our Medical Malpractice Group. Mr. Embury is a leader in the area of medical malpractice, including obstetrical malpractice, surgical malpractice, hospital and nursing errors and catastrophic personal injury claims. Mr. Embury has more than 20 years of experience as a trial and appeal lawyer.

Mr. Embury's expertise is well-recognized in the medical malpractice community. In addition to appearing as trial and appeal counsel, on complex cases involving all types of medical negligence, Mr. Embury also acts as co-counsel assisting other lawyers with intricate cases. Mr. Embury appeared as co-counsel on the Club Resorts Ltd. v Van Breda case with Greg Neinstein helping pave the way for Canadian Citizens to sue for catastrophic personal injuries which occurred in a foreign jurisdiction.

We wish Duncan many years of continued success at our firm and in the field of medical malpractice.
